ME COURT—Circuit.—Nos. 224 to 229, 232 to 240.
MR COURT—Special Term.—Saturday, motions.
D STATES DESTRUCT COURT —Metions.

The Directors of the Association for the Ex-sisten of the Industry of all Nations give notice that 1 ubition is now spen to the public in all its branches. It come changes and additions will horosite, room times to, be made, but in its great departments of raw produce unfactured articles, machinery, and fine aris, the exhibi-n may be now pronounced complete. The produce the Directors, in making this announcement, take pleasur-maying that, in all its branches, it is by far the most com-hencive and attractive that has ever been made in this larry, and they believe it will compare favorably with any fundacountry, and they believe is will compare favorably with an over made.

The display of foreign art, and the products of the still of the Old World, is altogather superior to anything over before cellected in this country, while the inventive larganity, the mechanical skill, and the industrial energy of our own people have nover before been made so apparent.

The enterprise and the talent of over 5,000 athlitiors have reduced this array of the most beautiful and useful products a human intelligence, and the Directors now earnesdy invite their fellow citisons to embrace the present opportunity a teamine and to study a cellection, the like of which never haves, and, in all probability, will not in many years again be offered to their observation.

The authibition will close in the month of December next DIRECTORE.

Hay it Please the Court to Adjourn?—This the earnest prayer of the jurors, witnesses, coursel, clients, and spectators assembled in the various court rooms in the rark, about the time when RABIN EAU'S capital cooks are under the court of the result of the series of dinners, at his well known actuariant, next door to Burton's theatre. We believe the avery odor of the cuisine reaches the bench, the jury-box, and the bar. Be this as it may, it is quite certain that whenever the courts do take an intermission for lunch or dinner, our resure to see the same faces you have just left in the lay Hall and the other edifices dedicated to Justice, grouped and Rabineau's tables, or washing down the husks of argument at his well stocked bar.
